

Planning for Long-term Care & Avoiding Social Security Mistakes

65% of us are likely to need long-term care services at some point in our lives.*

How will you or your parents pay these expenses?
Do you know what options are available to insure?
At what age should you start collecting Social Security?

Join us on May 21st at 6pm for an informative discussion on Long-Term Care and Social Security. We'll discuss ways to protect your retirement from long-term care expenses and maximize your social security benefits.

RSVP or email us to learn more.
