In his role as Executive Vice President at Seventy2 Capital, David Holdsworth advises individuals and families on investment strategies to meet their financial needs throughout their careers and into retirement. He draws on his deep experience in the industry to deliver a standard that is personable as it is professional.

David joined Seventy2 Capital after spending the majority of his 30-year-career as an advisor at Wells Fargo Advisors. During the 1990s, David was a familiar voice on WTOP where he could be heard giving daily market reports to listeners in the Washington, DC - Baltimore region. He earned his BS in Economics at Villanova University and holds the Accredited Asset Management Specialist® (AAMS®) designation.

He grew up in Potomac and now, he and his wife of 28 years reside in Darnestown with their 4 children (including a set of triplets!) and a chocolate lab. In his free time, David can be found playing golf in the warmer months and serving on the Wisp Resort Ski Patrol during the colder months.
