As a Senior Vice President with Seventy2 Capital, James Brockett strives to enhance his clients' financial well-being by advising on the optimal mix of investment. He serves clients in the legal profession but also works with business owners to maximize corporate retirement strategies. James believes that tailored and holistic investment advice is the key to meeting one's most important financial goals.

James also leads Seventy2 Capital's summer and semester internship program, a unique opportunity for college and graduate students to gain practical experience in wealth management. He earned his Bachelor of Science in Finance from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at The University of Maryland, College Park.

James and his wife are long time Maryland locals. On the weekends, you'll find them enjoying the outdoors, playing golf, and spending time with their families.
