Frank Scicchitano leads the Seventy2 Capital office in Annapolis, MD. Having started his career in one of the most tumultuous times in the market, he has been specializing in helping clients manage their wealth through good and difficult times since 2001. Frank has found success building his practice by concentrating on developing long-term relationships through a commitment to providing first-class solutions and quality client service.

Prior to Seventy2 Capital, Frank spent 9 years at UBS where he led a team delivering customized investment strategies for clients. He joined UBS in 2010 after 7 years at Wachovia Securities, a predecessor of Wells Fargo Advisors, and prior tenures at Morgan Stanley and Bank of America Investments. He earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Loyola College where he played on the men's Division 1 lacrosse team for all four years.

Frank is a native of New York but has called Maryland home for over 20 years. He and his wife reside in Pasadena, MD with their five kids. He is FINRA registered and hold Series 7 and 63 securities registrations as well as life, health and long-term care insurance licenses.
