

Derek Ehman

Vice President

Derek.Ehman@seventy2capital.com

443-589-7506

As a Vice President and Financial Advisor at Seventy2 Capital, Derek is committed to developing client relationships founded on trust, respect and patience. He is always striving for excellence when providing wealth planning services and advice. With careful diligence, Derek customizes investment strategies focused on progressive growth.

Derek attended Pennsylvania State University and in 1992 graduated with a bachelor's degree in Economics. Derek also holds the Series 7, 63, 65 registrations and Life/Health and Variable Annuity licenses. Derek serves on the Board of Directors for the Martin J. Smith Foundation.

Outside of the office, Derek enjoys spending time with his two children. On the weekends, you can catch him on his bike or maybe running a triathlon!