As an Assistant Vice President at Seventy2 Capital, Amy Roberts advises clients on retirement income and planning strategies, estate planning strategies, charitable giving, family finances and education savings. She has a focus on helping women achieve their financial goals which has led to recognition consecutively from 2014 – 2018 and to regular invitations from women's groups to educate on the topics of investment management and personal finances.

Amy has been selected as a Five Star Wealth Manager between 2015 – 2017 and 2019 – 2021* as featured in the 2021 October/November 2021 issue of Fortune Magazine's Women in Wealth section. As a result of her dedication to the profession and increasing her wealth management knowledge, Amy has earned the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor™ (CRPC®) and the Accredited Asset Management Specialist™ (AAMS®) professional designations. She graduated from Towson University with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology.

Outside of the office, her personal passions are traveling, wine tasting and supporting the Fallston Animal Rescue Movement.
