As a Senior Registered Wealth Associate with Seventy2 Capital, Betty Gunter assists financial advisors with service and operational activities including client requests for account related information and the preparation of client documents and reviews.

Over her 25-year career in the investment advisory and brokerage industry, Betty has been recognized by colleagues for her diligence, professional approach, and extensive knowledge of client operations. Prior to Seventy2 Capital, she held similar roles at RBC Capital Markets, UBS and Legg Mason Wood Walker. In addition, she has successfully completed the SIE, series 7, 63 and 65 registrations. In her personal time, Betty enjoys traveling and reading and is an avid sports fan. She is a mother of three grown children and, as a big dog lover, Betty can be found outside the office with her Bichon Frise, Dewey.
