As a Vice President at Seventy2 Capital, Andrew Hahn assists businesses, families, and individuals to implement strategies along every step of their financial life cycle. He takes a very hands-on role by working closely with clients and their other trusted advisors such as attorneys and accountants to address tax, business, and estate issues along with wealth transfer strategies.

Andrew joined Seventy2 Capital after 13 years as a financial advisor and VP for Merrill Lynch Wealth Management. Prior to his time at Merrill Lynch, Andrew trained and worked as an advisor at UBS Wealth Management for 5 years. During his career, he has specialized in helping families that have members with Special Needs or disabilities to address the challenges that these situations present. In addition, Andrew is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) professional and holds the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC®) designation.

Andrew is a graduate of James Madison University with a degree in Business Management. He enjoys giving back to his community and is a Rotarian, on the Board of the Abilities Network and the Children's Guild. He currently resides in Baltimore County with his wife, Laura, and children, Jacob and Madeleine.
