Stuart Barth, Vice President at Seventy2 Capital Wealth Management, offers clients comprehensive investment management services to help get them from where they are to where they want to be. With experience in disability, life insurance, parental care, education, and more, Stuart offers the dedication and expertise needed to guide clients towards their financial goals.

Stuart has thirty-seven years of experience in the wealth management industry. He got his start as an administrative assistant, then became an operations manager, branch manager, and financial advisor. He has held positions at Legg Mason, Scott Trade, Bank of America, and Wells Fargo Advisors Financial Network prior to joining Seventy2 Capital Wealth Management.

Outside of the office, Stuart enjoys playing golf. He is an avid reader and writer with plans to publish his own book. Additionally, he grew up in motor sports and used to race cars.

Insurance products are offered through nonbank insurance agency affiliates of Wells Fargo & Company and are underwritten by unaffiliated insurance companies.
