Kyle Hublitz takes a family approach to wealth management, working with multiple generations of families to help clients grow, protect, enjoy, and eventually pass on their wealth. He is experienced in creating a wealth plan tailored to the specific needs of the client, and ensures he considers the big picture for their long-term goals and needs.

Kyle joined Seventy2 Capital following nearly fifteen years at UBS as a Senior Vice President – Wealth Management. Prior to that role, he served as a Vice President of Investments at Smith Barney for over fifteen years.

Kyle graduated from Hamilton College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics. Outside of the office, he enjoys spending time with his family outdoors, golfing, fishing, and boating in warmer months and skiing in the winter. Kyle has been a long-standing active volunteer for the Make-A-Wish of CT organization, hosting an annual Skate-A-Thon and helping grant wishes.
