As a Senior Wealth Associate, Janine is here to support her Advisor and provide exemplary service to her clients. Her responsibilities include managing client services, new accounts and transfers and resolving client information requests.

With over twenty years of experience in the wealth management industry, Janine began her career at Paine Webber, now UBS. She then moved to Wachovia, which merged with Wells Fargo Advisors Financial Network. In addition to working as a Senior Wealth Associate, Janine is a licensed notary.

Outside of the office, Janine enjoys spending time with her husband, two daughters, and two granddaughters. She and her family love going to the beach, and Janine is a scuba diver.
