

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Seventy2 Capital Appoints Linda Whittington and Expands into Virginia

BETHESDA, MD – March 1st, 2022: Seventy2 Capital, a rapidly growing, independent wealth management practice in the Washington, DC metropolitan area, announced today that Linda Whittington joins as a Partner. Whittington will be spearheading the establishment of a new branch for the firm in Tysons Corner, VA. Jay Quimby also joins the team today as a Client Service Associate in Tysons Corner to build out Whittington's team and further the firm's geographic growth.

"Expanding into Virginia is very exciting for us and the growing demand for independent solutions out there has not gone unnoticed," said co-Founder, Thomas Fautrel.

Whittington transitions from over 6 years with Wells Fargo Advisors and over 7 years with Morgan Stanley's Private Wealth Management team.

"We couldn't have picked a better partner than Linda to meet the demand for independence in Virginia, she is a seasoned financial advisor with expertise grounded in the region," added Paul Carlson, co-Founder.
